

Our chalkboard, our colors, our chimpy.
The library keeps the keys.
Pennies a month, idle by default.

Nativity + CHPL. It started on a park bench:
an educator's Newbery lists, a library that could give them a home.

Every title is checked against what CHPL actually owns – the green ✓. A librarian confirms the tricky ones by hand.

Web reading lists go stale and link-rot.
Curated lists deserve better.

A REAL HOME

DATA STAYS PUT

No vendor watching your reading groups. The library keeps the keys. Privacy by design.

WHERE IT'S HEADED

not built yet
Your educator card → mint a list → follow a reading group together.
